Chapter 1 by Maxwell White

The fight between the angels and demons has lasted as long before the birth of the Earth. Now waiting for the chosen one to be given the scroll of god, this champion must decide weather good triumphs or chaos rules over all.

All have been waiting for this moment. It has all come down to this, The first wave of gods angels, the trumpets have been called to arms. But, as with all prophecies, some things you can't truly follow.

My name is Morar Ushyra, an angel of the twenty first league. I await upon the Earth, to find the chosen willing to help in the war. But most importantly, I am to find the pone who will bring this war to an end.

Lucky for me, I have some contacts from within hell that give me plenty of information. The reason how I manage to have contacts there in the first place was because I know the devils child, Taeur.

He is nothing like his father before him. He is willing for peace, even if this means double crossing his father to gain the tittle and throne of the devil that is rightfully his
